St Vincent

Division Adult and Continuing Education (DACE) a division in Ministry of Education and is the lead agency for adult education. DACE offers both formal and non-formal programmes utilising learning resource centres throughout the island. Organising delivery in zones, DACE offers short courses in areas requested by members of the community. These courses provide skills enhancement for cottage-type industries and other TVET vocations. Trainees acquire formal certification (Caribbean Secondary Education Certificates (CSEC)) and complete bridging courses for matriculation into formal programmes. Under the SkYE Programme DACE is expected to train 360 disadvantaged young people including Persons with Disabilities.
