

Springboard Caribbean Ltd. is a training and consultancy company and the strategic educational partner of the Caribbean Hotel and Tourism Association (CHTA). Springboard offers a range of both UK accredited and customised training programmes and consultancy services to 33 Caribbean islands. Established in St. Lucia in 2012, Springboard has developed a strong track record in the design, delivery and certification of Workforce Development, Industry Compliance and Management & Leadership training programmes for Caribbean businesses within all industry sectors. Springboard aims to train 204 young Saint Lucians for employment within the hospitality & tourism industry. On completion of their training, trainees will attend a two-month internship, with one of the island's leading employers, with the possibility of full-time employment at the end of the internship period.
